

Spotlight on a Manufacturer - IWL

Inflatable World Leisure Ltd., located in Bingham Nottinghamshire, is one of the premier manufacturers in the UK. Established in 1999 IWL has grown in to one of the UK's most respected inflatable manufacturers, drawing on over 30 years experience. The main criteria has always been to offer our customers a truly personalised service from placement of order right through to our unrivalled after sales care.

Over the years Inflatable World Leisure has invested heavily in the latest technology in computer design enabling us to offer our customers tailor made inflatables to their exact requirements.

Headed up by Managing Director Paul Walkden who states, "we do not claim to be the largest manufacturer, however, we do claim to be among the industries leaders in build quality and design. Our team here at Inflatable World Leisure give all our customers a truly personalised service both before, and after sale. With our highly experienced team we can design bespoke units with artwork that is second to none within the inflatable industry".

Since 2004 IWL have been working on their latest venture to provide a low cost, high quality inflatable enabling us to assist the new hirers into the inflatable industry. We have spent the last three years researching and developing our new products and are about to launch with seven tried and tested designs from within the IWL leisure range.

IWL is now establishing itself as a major competitor within the inflatable world market place.
